

OCKC Code of Conduct

It is the policy of Oxford Canoe and Kayak Club that all paddlers, volunteers, coaches, leaders and parents show respect and understanding for each other and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the Club. The aim is for all paddlers to improve performance and have fun.

Everyone involved in the club should abide by the club rules and policies.

Paddlers

- Take care of all property belonging to the club or club members.
- Treat other club members with respect at all times — on and off the water — treat other paddlers as you would want to be treated yourself.
- Control tempers and avoid behaviour which may affect or upset others.
- Co-operate and listen to your coach or club officials.

Club officials, coaches, leaders and volunteers

- All OCKC coaches are expected to follow British Canoeing and club guidelines and policies. They will adhere to the British Canoeing Awarding Body's Coaching Code of Conduct.
- Consider the wellbeing and safety of paddlers before the development of performance.
- Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance, inspiring the same behaviours in members. Examples are: how we engage with briefings, treat club kit, appropriately use our own kit including BA and helmets, leave kit in good state, report damage etc.
- During sessions engage with (or lead) a coaches pre- and post-session briefing, to identify success and areas to improve.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with paddlers and other coaches, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
- Hold the appropriate, up-dated qualifications (either formally via BC or via committee sign off), CPD and insurance.
- Encourage paddlers to value their performance and not just results.
- Never condone the use of prohibited substances.

Parents/guardians

- Help your child to recognise good performance, not just results.
- Never force your child to take part in sport.
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes.

- Publicly accept official's judgements.
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy the sport.
- Use correct and proper language at all times.
- Set a good example by applauding good performances of all paddlers.
